

The Cedars Ranch
Green Wedding Venue & Wellness Retreat

Water Conservation Grants & Incentives Summary

INCENTIVE TYPE	NAME	DETAILS	AMOUNT	WEB LINK
State Property Tax Exemption	Water Conservation Initiatives Property Tax Exemption	Property Tax Code allows an exemption from taxation of part or all of the assessed value of property on which water conservation initiatives are made (rainwater harvesting is part of this initiative).		http://www.twdb.texas.gov/publications/shells/RainwaterHarvesting.pdf
State Sales Tax Exemption	Rainwater Harvesting Equipment and Supplies State Sales Tax Exemption	Texas Tax Code exempts rainwater harvesting equipment and supplies from state sales tax. To claim this exemption, a purchaser of rainwater harvesting equipment must furnish a Texas Sales and Use Tax Exemption Certification to the supplier of the equipment		http://www.window.state.tx.us/taxinfo/taxforms/01-339.pdf .
Hays County Development Services Incentive	Rainwater Harvesting Incentive Program	$100 fee reimbursement for new development permitted through Hays County Development Services. Minimum storage capacity: 2,500 gallons.		http://www.watercache.com/resources/rainwater-rebates

Source: Texas Water Development Board: <http://www.twdb.texas.gov/innovativewater>